Communications

You may have seen or met Peter Roberts over the last few weeks, as he went around the village asking for house owners' email addresses. As a result of this, we now have email addresses for all but 7 house owners – these do not have email accounts. We therefore feel we are now in a position to communicate more frequently, as emails are quick, easy and free. Prints of any emails will be delivered to the few house owners who are not online.

It is hoped that by doing this we will be able to keep everyone better informed about what is happening with the village land, which we house owners all own. We represent you, and we not only want you to know what is happening, but also we would like you to participate in the decision making, if you wish.

There will still be newsletters every few months, but these will be for everyone, not just house owners, and will be more about topics of general interest, and social events. For simplicity, and to keep costs down, we hope that most people will take these electronically, but everyone will have the choice.

We would also like to use emails for voting on issues, when necessary, so that it is as easy as possible to take part. Again, paper copies would be distributed to those few without email.

If you have any comments on these ideas, please email the committee using the address info@crambeckvillage.com (emails to this address automatically go to 4 of us), or talk to any of us, or drop a note in at any of our houses. If you wish, one of us will come to your house to discuss any issues concerning the village land.

Look out for further emails/messages from us in the near future.

Peter Roberts
